BY JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.

of all the myriad moods of mind
That through the soul came througing,
Which one was 'et a odear, so kind,
So beautird, as longing?
The thing we long for, that we are,
For one transcendent moment;

Still, through our pattry stir and strife, Growe down our wished Ideal; and longing molds in cley what life Carres in the man Jie Real; To let the new tife in we know, Desire must ope the portal; Perhaps the longing to be so Helps makes the soul immortal.

Longing is God's fresh heavenward will,

With our your earthward striving;

We quench it that we may be still .

Content with merely living;

But, would we learn the heart's full scope,

Which we are hourly wronging.

Our lives must climb from hope to hope,

And realize our longing.

Ah! let us hope that to our praise Good God not only reckons Be moments when we treed his ways, But when the spirit beckens; That some slight good is also wrought Beyond self-astasfaction, we are simply good in thought, re'er we fail in action.

ALL ABOUT THE STATE.

COTTON PICKING FOR A WAGER The Barnwell Journal says: "We learn that swo colored women on Mr. Richardson's plantation, near Allendale, a few days ago ran a race in picking cetten on a bet of five dollars. At the close of the day one had picked four hundred pounds and the other four hundred and one and a half pounds. "a is certainly the best picking we have ever heard of with one exception. Some years ago Dr. O'Bannon had a woman who picked four hundred pounds in one day."

A. Forthecomino PROTAMATION.

The reporter of the Winnsboro' News has been interviewing Governor Scott, from whom he obtained the following draft of a forthcoming proclamation:

Whereas, Information has reached me that the laborers in certain portions of the State have unreasonable and extravagant notions of the good to come to them, and that very soon, from the land commission, which land commission is an experiment requiring a series of years for its trial, and which will surely prove a failure, unless the whole body of laborers continue patient, faithful and steady at their work; and, whereas, wicked and designing men are encouraging combinations among the laborers to their own hurt, throug them to demand unjust and unreasonable componsation from their employers, which the partial failure of the c , and the consequent scarcity, and the great distress of the planters, reader it their policy, as well as puts it into their power to refuse, as ot that such combinations can only result in great delay with next year's crop, much idenses and heavy loss to all concerned. Now, therefore, I Robert K. Scott, Governor of South Carolina, issue this my proclamation, in the name of the State of South Carolina, urging all cilizens of the State to discourage the aforesaid expectations and combinations, and to cultivate feelings of mutual friendship and good fellowship with one another; and is all-contacte for labor, or for the roat of land for the coming year, I carnestly exhort them, both laborers and employers, to film at simply such terms as will be just and fair of all, and thus contribute, each one in his sphere, to advance the happiness, prosperity and fire of all.

SHREDS OF STATE NEWS.

Up to the 17th inst., two hundred and eighty-five bales of cotton bad been shipped from Blackville to Charleston, against thirty-two-up to the same time last year.

An agricultural society was organized at Manning on the 6th instant, with the following officers; w. B. Carpenter, president; Colonel John O. Brock, vice-president; W. J. MoFaddin and Arthur Harvin, secretaries; Moses, Levi, treasurer.

and Arthur Harvin, secretaries; Moses, Levi, treasurer.

The Barnwell Journal says that the rust is spreading to such an extent that some planters will finer nestry their whole cotton crops gathered by the first of October.

Chaster, following the example of other counties in the State, has, through her juries, declared that debts contracted ante et pendente bellum, ought not to be paid in full.

Chester is agitated on the subject of the Air Line Rallroad.

Line Railroad.

A public meeting in Allendale has passed resolutions to discountenance all trefficking in cotton after nightfull:

A single lucifer match factory in this country is credited with using in a year 728,000 feet of the best clear pine; 400,000 feet of basswood for boxes, 400 barrels of sulphur, 5600 pounds of phosphorus, It also uses weekly four tone of past-board, 3000 pounds of paper, for small boxes, and nearly 400 pounds of flour for paste. It employs 300 hands, and pays daily $1500 for revenue stamps.

—At last accounts nearly four hundred emi-grants from South Carolina, Georgia and Flo-rids had succeeded in landing in Cuba, and had joined the revolutionary forces. They were all soldiers in the late war.
